

Visitor Attractions Guide for Inverness & the Highlands

These are just visiting tips, there are lots more places to see, empty beaches to enjoy, walks to explore and stunning scenery to view. If you are in doubt if an attraction is open ask reception to look at the website for you. Have a fantastic stay in Inverness and enjoy the Scottish Highlands. A great visitor's website is: www.visitscotland.com/destinations-maps/highlands.

- New Inverness Castle Viewing Platform - directly opposite the Palace in time for spring 2017, the North Tower of the historic Inverness Castle is to be opened as a visitor's attraction with a brand new Inverness Castle Viewing Platform. You will now be able to get a fantastic view up and down the River Ness and the surrounding town and hills.
- Loch Ness – Top of the list it has to be a visit to see Nessie at Loch Ness and Urquhart Castle
- Fort George – A spectacular Fortress built to keep rebellious Highlanders in order. A glimpse into military history of the Highlands from the 18th Century onwards link to Fort George
- Culloden Battlefield and Visitors Centre – The scene of the last major battle fought on mainland Britain 16th April 1746 – Jacobite Rebellion. Fantastic new visitors centre now open www.nts.org.uk/culloden
- Cawdor Castle – A Fairy Tale Castle that has been the home of the Thanes of Cawdor since 1370. Excellent attraction full access to the gardens, grounds with trails and walks, own 9-hole golf course, restaurant and shops. Cawdor Castle also features a summer programme of events so for more information see the website www.cawdorcastle.com
- Near Culloden: Clava Cairns (Near Culloden) – Following the brown tourist signs to Clava Cairns along minor roads and close to a spectacular railway viaduct en route to the car park for what are properly called the Prehistoric Burials Cairns of Balnauran of Clava. Dating back to 2000BC there are three burial cairns at Balnauran, and they are part of a line of seven dotted along the South side of the valley of the River Nairn. These together are part of a group of some 45 very distinctive cairns in Northern Inverness-shire, all are called Clava Cairns after this location, which is where they were first studied. What sets them apart is their construction within a “kerb”, a ring of large containing boulders. Definitely worth a look and only a mile from Culloden. www.undiscoveredscotland.co.uk/inverness/clavacairns/index.html
- Jacobite Cruises – The finest way to see Loch Ness, nothing compares to a luxury cruise with the Jacobite Experience – for the splendour of summer or crispness of winter ( Warm drinks and a cabin is provided!) www.jacobite.co.uk
- Caledonian Canal & the village of Fort Augustus – the William Telford an Engineered Canal stretching 60 miles of which 22 miles are man-made. Definitely worth a visit!
- Inverness City Centre – Whether it is for shopping or for visiting the castle, museum or taking a walk round the gardens, it is well worth investigating.
- Inverness Museum only minutes from the Palace in the town centre this is well worth a visit for exploring the Highlands, traditions and crafts <http://inverness.highland.museum> well as up to date Exhibitions featuring Highland life.

- Inverness Floral Hall - The Floral Hall, Gardens and Coffee Shop is a unique visitor attraction that offers a tranquil break amidst beautiful floral displays. Opened in 1993 it has been inspiring local gardeners and visitors from all over the world ever since www.invernessfloralhall.com. Well worth a visit walking distance from the Palace.
- Titanic Inverness – an amazing feat in a back garden an interactive and evolving maritime museum with nautical artefacts, large model ships such as Titanic and submarines made from improvised recycled materials. 15-20 minutes' walk from city centre Inverness. www.shipspace.co.uk – one of Trip Advisor's must visit attractions!
- Tomatin Distillery excellent distillery is located in the Monadhliath Mountains just south of Inverness off the A9 www.tomatin.com. A Trip Advisor must visit.
- Happy Tours – Local Tours, Historical Walking Tours, Whisky Tours, Tours to the Skye or Orkney, Mountain Bike Hire and Private Guided tours. Cameron offers all sorts of tours around the city and along the riverbank. Run by Cameron the “man in the kilt” 07828 154 683 happytours@uwclub.net www.happy-tours.biz
- Puffin Express Tours – Run by Kathleen and Sinclair Dunnett they have a wealth of knowledge about the Highlands, history, culture and animals that live in the countryside. An excellent day out is the trip from Inverness all the way to Orkney and yes you can do it in one day! Travel by coach over to John O'Groats, then a ferry over to Orkney with the Puffin Express Team and a day spent enjoying the Islands history and the local environment. Now they are doing trips from Inverness to Skye, John O'Groats and Applecross www.puffinexpress.co.uk
- Phoenix Dolphin Trips on the Moray Firth www.inverness-dolphin-trips.co.uk
- Travelling towards Beaulieu & the North – just some ideas...
  - Glen Ord Distillery, Black Isle – A fantastic distillery founded in 1838, with tours, Exhibition and Shop, it is in easy driving distance. Guided tours and special tasting tours are available. Check before you go as opening times vary throughout the year. www.discovering-distilleries.com/glenord
  - Black Isle Brewery – Opened in 1998 to offer the very best in Scottish Organic Beers. The Black Isle has long been known for its excellent malting barley. The aim of the brewery is to build on this heritage and produce world-class beers using organically produced barley and hops. www.blackislebrewery.com Again times of opening vary depending on time of year.
  - Strathpeffer: Next door to Strathpeffer Pavillion, visit the Victorian Spa waters where sulphurous waters were discovered in the 1700's and declared in 1819 to be the most healthy in Britain. A lovely Highland Village in the summer also offers the Old Railway Station which is the home of the Highland Museum of Childhood, a superb exhibition about childhood in the Highland of Scotland and which covers subjects as diverse as toys and play on the one hand, and child labour on the other.
  - The Priory in Beaulieu – The ruins lie at the east end of the main square of Beaulieu. It was one of three priories founded in Scotland by monks of the Valliscaulian order in the years following 1230. Worth a visit, keys often held at Priory Hotel. www.undiscoveredscotland.co.uk/beaulieu/beaulieupriory
  - Robertsons Larder and Kids Farm outside Beaulieu with a Kids farm too! www.robertsonsfarmshop.co.uk

- Falls of Shin: the visitors centre and shop is closed due to fire damage in May 2013 however it is currently being rebuilt with opening planned in Spring 2017 see www.facebook.com/FallsofShin/ for up to date information. It looks impressive! The car park is open so visitors can continue to visit the salmon leap viewpoint and enjoy the beautiful woodland walks at Achany which is adjacent to the car park. Walks see Falls of Shin.
- Dunrobin Castle and Gardens – Truly spectacular location on the sea cliffs, it is the most northerly of Scotland's Great houses and is certainly one of the most majestic. It is the largest house in the Northern Highlands with 189 rooms, and is one of Britain's oldest continuously inhabited houses, dating in part from the 1300's. The history of the castle is quite fascinating and has seen the architectural influences of Sir Charles Barry and Sir Robert Lorimer. The castle has been used as a naval hospital in the First World War and from 1965 to 1972 as a boy's school. Just 50 miles north of Inverness and definitely worth a visit. www.dunrobincastle.co.uk
- Glenmorangie Whisky Distillery – Since 1843 the distillery has been producing it's famous malt on the Dornoch Shores. Whisky tasting and tours available www.glenmorangie.com
- Castle of Mey and Gardens – Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth The Queen Mother first saw what was then Barrogill castle in 1952. Having acquired the most northerly castle on the British Mainland, The Queen Mother renovated and restored it and created the beautiful gardens you see today. For almost half a century she spent many happy summers here and shorter visits at other times of the year. www.castleofmey.org.uk

  - The Benromach Distillery – The smallest working distillery in Speyside. Founded in 1898, it was rescued in 1993, the HRH Prince of Wales officially opened it in its Centenary year. Now you can see the mash tun, the burnished copper stills and the brass spirit safe where the distiller's craft creates the unique qualities of the single malt. During your visit discover the time-honoured skills of whiskey making, one that remains true to it's heritage. "Nose" and enjoy a dram of the award-winning Benromach Single Malt in the old Drier House and now Malt Whisky Centre. www.benromach.com

- Dallas Dhu Distillery – It has a difference, it is a disused distillery owned by Historic Scotland but still offering the full tour of the whisky process through the ages and you can sample a wee dram. www.dallasdhu.com
- Pluscarden Abbey – Founded in 1230, it lies in the tranquil, sheltered valley of the Black Burn, 6 miles from Elgin. Like Scotland's only other active abbey, Iona Abbey, Pluscarden's story is one of abandonment after the reformation in 1560, followed by a restoration in the 20th Century. Visitors today can view the splendid transepts and crossing, and chapels in part of the choir. There is also a range of visitor facilities in the low range on part of the site of the nave. Much of the rest of the abbey is naturally reserved for the use of the monks and guests on retreat, including the beautifully restored east range and the newly constructed west range, opened in 1993. www.pluscardenabbey.org
